Tavistock Bar Menu

The Tavistock Bar is named in honour of the Marquess of Tavistock, a title held by the Dukes of Bedford and used as a courtesy by the eldest son. The Tavistock Bar, more than any other part of the hotel most closely reflects the history of The Woburn Hotel as a coaching inn and tavern in the 18th century.

With its original, blackened wooden beams, The Tavistock Bar is full of character and includes a collection of cartoons by Jak, Giles and Reg Smythe, relating to the 13th Duke of Bedford and the Woburn Estate.

Keeping it local

The Woburn Hotel has always strived to work with high quality local partners, one of which is Eagle Brewery.

The Bedford brewery is home to many of Britain's iconic ale brands including Bombardier, Courage, and McEwan's, and it has packaged world-famous brews such as Kirin Ichiban, Erdinger, and Estrella Damm.

It was also home to the Glenn Miller Orchestra during the Second World War with one of the sites reputed to have been his last ever performance.

So, do take the opportunity to try their cask ales of Eagle IPA, Young's London Stout, Shipyard American Pale Ale or the guest beers when dining with us at The Woburn Hotel.
